

MY FRIEND

Get a message

4 : 05

*I feel alone,
Barely feel alive*

*Pick my phone up,
See who it's from It's from my friend I've known since I was young*

*They say it's over
The break up's done
They said they don't know how they'll carry on*

*One last message
Then pops up
What do I do now?
And I said*

*It'll be ok tomorrow
my friend just lay down tonight
Just lay down tonight
Yeah*

*You're going through some hard times
my friend don't care if you cry
Don't care if you cry
No*

*A few months pass
It all seems like it's back to normal again
He feels like he's past the worst They're back to being just friends*

*But then one day he sees her sitting Talking to somebody new Bringing up feelings of pain and jealousy
He never thought he knew*

*He feels like moving on is the only option
But he doesn't know how
In moments like these he turns to me and asks what do I do now?*

And I said

*It'll be ok tomorrow
my friend just lay down tonight
Just lay down tonight
Yeah*

*You're going through some hard times
my friend don't care if you cry
Don't care if you cry
No*

*It'll be ok tomorrow
my friend just lay down tonight
Just lay down tonight
Yeah*

*You're going through some hard times
my friend don't care if you cry
No*
